New Haven, CT – Lightning boast two on Golf All-CACC Team

With the Lightning finishing third in the CACC Golf Tournament last week the Lightning have now found two on the All-CACC team. Freshman Wes Hood and Senior Justin Grossman leading the Lightning with each shooting 79 for the first round and 75 for the second round, giving them a total of 154 and placing them in a tie for 5th place they saw their way onto the All-CACC Team.

Wes Hood, a Chesapeake City, Maryland native, has shown his improvement over the season with leading the Lightning in the Pace University Spring Invitational, the GBC Spring Invitational, and the CACC Tournament. Wes also finished in a tie for 6th place in the USP Invitational and helped the Lightning win the tournament. Wes is currently averaging a score of 79 per round.

Justin Grossman, a Dover, Delaware native, has been a leader for the Lightning this season. Justin has helped the Lightning by leading the team in the CACC Tournament with a 5th place finish and the USP Invitational with a 2nd place finish. Justin is currently averaging a score of 80 per round.
